

Quad Cities Area Resources

(Resources You Need to Know)

Aside from our Signal group, you need to know we are on line almost daily to talk to you about your training and the LOCAL resources available to you. Your instructors and I host live dry practice sessions 3 mornings per week hosted on our private DSQC T4 Signal channel to make sure you are getting your self-training dry practice questions answered. Additionally, DSI (via Ron Danielowski) also hosts live dry practice sessions (Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays at 0620-0640). These online meetings are hosted on Discord here: <https://discord.gg/zZSmfwt> so make sure you join Ron if you either want remediation or to catch up if you missed your DSQCs live online dry practice session.

We also host live Weekly DA Tours as well as Pre and Post-Course Training Support w/Q&As - again via our private Signal group. If you miss ours, please reschedule with us or feel free to join DSI's Tour w/Q&A on Tuesday evenings on GoToMeeting here (<https://global.gotomeeting.com/join/273372341>) to ensure you are getting all of your training questions answered in a timely manner.

Below you will find the LOCAL Defense Attorneys and Psychological Counselors that both meet the criteria we mention in CHAPTER 8: SURVIVING THE LITIGATION LANDMINES and CHAPTER 9: OTHER IMPLICATIONS OF VIOLENCE, which can be found in your physical copy of your DSI Reference Manual.

Please feel free to forward us names of other reputable Attorneys and Psychological Counselors you can personally recommend, and we will be happy to talk to them about getting put on our list.

Please be on the lookout (BOLO) for messages from us on our Signal group for updates, and check back here often (we update when we get new names) to download this PDF in order to update your hard copy for your files/records.
